

The Savannah Mile

Benefiting the Two Hundred Club of the Coastal Empire
“WE CARE FOR THOSE WHO CARE FOR US”

Memorial Day Weekend
Saturday, May 24th, 2008

The 2nd Annual Savannah Mile will be run in downtown Savannah on Memorial Day weekend. This promises to be one of the most exciting running events in Savannah! The course takes you one mile straight down Drayton Avenue, starting near the south end of Forsyth Park, finishing at Broughton Street.

The Mile is a unique running event that attracts all levels of participants from the very young to the master's runner who is young at heart. The Savannah Mile will be run in several heats which will include a family division, five year age groups guaranteeing many award winners, climaxing with an elite division and heat that will promise to bring a competitive finish and extremely fast times.

Register online at www.active.com or turn your race forms in at Fleet Feet Savannah.
